

Blanca Cobb

Body Language & Nonverbal Communications Expert

Blanca Cobb, internationally recognized Body Language and Nonverbal Communications Expert, uses her behavior analysis expertise and psychology background to uncover what you don't see in your personal and business relationships.

More than 60% of communication is nonverbal, which means that your gestures, voice and facial expressions make a stronger impression on your customers than what you say.

Blanca breaks down the complexities of interpersonal, multi-generational and multi-ethnic communications so you can improve your customers' experiences, retain your customers' loyalty and strengthen your company culture.
